

7 Reasons

Why Prophix is a better alternative to Excel, FRx and Management Reporter

Reduce your frustration with spreadsheets, replace old FRx software or upgrade from Management Reporter with a single, unified Corporate Performance Management (CPM) solution designed to track the financial health of your company.

1

Single Source of Truth

Executives need to know there is a trusted, single source of data for financial reporting and analysis. Prophix seamlessly integrates data from multiple sources. A richer platform is created by combining different subsets of data, enabling better reporting, planning and decision making.

Self-Service Reporting and Analysis

Finance and operations are no longer at the mercy of IT. Users can generate reports on demand and drill through to detailed transactional data, enabling stakeholders to manage their business areas proactively.

Report Creation Made Easy

No programming is required, Prophix uses a drag-and-drop interface designed for business users. Unlimited, dynamic hierarchies (roll-up structures) ensure all numbers are accounted for in reports and templates where the associated hierarchy appears.

4

Operational Reporting

With the ability to easily access non-financial data, business owners can create detailed operational plans and track other metrics that are unique to their area.

Consolidations

Execute multi-site or multi-company consolidations to meet rigorous accounting requirements. Analyze both consolidated financial and operational information, giving you a holistic view of your organization as a whole or as each business unit.

Workflow

Create a controlled multi-user collaboration platform for business processes including the distribution and review of reports, the approval and rejection of planning data, as well as month-end processes. Avoid bottlenecks by monitoring each task via the Workflow monitor and/or e-mail notifications.

7

High Impact Visualizations

Gain insight into business trends by combining financial and operational data into dashboards and/or Ad Hoc pivoting queries. Make more informed business decisions.
